ACLS CERTIFICATION ADD-ON CLASS

ATTENTION ANESTHESIA TECHNOLOGISTS!

Ensure you're up to speed with the latest standards by securing your ACLS certification before December 31, 2024. We understand the importance of maintaining regulatory compliance and ensuring the highest standards of patient care. Since 2015, holding ACLS (Advanced Cardiovascular Life Support) certification has been a requirement outlined in the Scope of Practice (SOP) for Certified Technologists.

In alignment with the SOP guidelines, all Cer.A.T.T. holders are required to have their ACLS certification documented on file by December 31, 2024, effective immediately. This certification is a fundamental requirement to ensure the safe and effective delivery of anesthesia care. It's crucial for Certified Anesthesia Technologists to ensure their credentials are up to date well before the deadline.

To facilitate this process, ASATT will be offering an ACLS Certification add-on class held on Wednesday, September 25th, 2024, at the Omni Oklahoma City Hotel. Conference attendees an opportunity to enhance their skills and knowledge in managing cardiac emergencies.

This class is designed to enhance your skills in managing cardiac emergencies, a critical aspect of anesthesia care. But here's the best part – for just $50, attendees can enroll in the class, provided they've booked a 2-night stay at Omni Oklahoma City Hotel and purchase the required course book.

Online reservations are preferred: <https://www.omnihotels.com/hotels/oklahoma-city/meetings/asatt-2024-09242024>

Or call for reservations: 1-800-THE-OMNI

Mention "ASATT 2024" to receive the discounted rate.
